Obey that Impulse Hoosier Kitchen

Letter From a Wise Woman---With apologies to LIFE

I was troubled with gloomy thoughts.

During the night I frequently would get up and walk around the house.

I shed tears on the slightest provocation.

Seven aoctors had operated on me.

I had pains in my mind and disposition and was a burden to everybody.

I avoided my husband except on pay day. Everybody disliked me.

I felt that it wasn't much use and decided to end it all.

One day by accident I happened to pass a furniture store and saw a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet.

I went in and examined it as if in a dream. Mechanically I heard the words, "obey that impulse and send it home."

I had tried everything else.

As a last resort I paid my first little dollar-I became a Hoosier user.

Pretty soon I began to notice a change.

I had not turned the crank shaft of the flour bin twice before I began to pick up.

The color came back to my faded cheeks.

I caught myself laughing on several occasions in spite of myself.

I gained rapidly in weight.

Now I am Queen of Joy.

My complete recovery is due to the fact that I had Faith, obeyed the impulse and became a regular

Having found the "easy way to easy work" I ase it daily to displace that tired feeling-I am cured.

Yes, gentle reader there is a moral to this story. For those who would have it explained we have all the necessary information on tap at this store.
